Bike to Work Week encourages people to try biking to work and celebrates with those that already do. During the week visit commuter stations - celebratory pit stops along bike routes - where you can enjoy food & drinks, bike maps, bike maintenance, and fabulous prizes - all for free!

You can win a new bike for recruiting the most co-workers to join your team or for recording your commute online. There is a bike-a-day giveaway just for logging trips! Workplaces can win prestigious awards for best in participation, kilometers, and number of trips logged. Track your kms, calories and carbon emissions saved with our unique online tool.

So rally your friends and co-workers; register your company and yourself; and track your progress FREE online at www.biketoworkmetrovan.ca.
